RESPECT

Five star competition

Looking for a tournament with a great mix of nationalities? Then the Aalborg City Cup is the one for you. The preliminary rounds offer a fantastic international selection, so you really are assured of an international competition. With this ace up their sleeves, the organisers are well placed to get their tournament to the top of the rankings. But to properly organise a tournament with 300 teams and 1,000 matches in 3 days you need lots of volunteers and, above all, top facilities. Fortunately, the organisers score top marks for both.

Touristic information

Aalborg

IK Aalborg Freja's sports park is located by the fjord a few kilometres from the city centre and near the NordjyskeArena, home to Superliga club AaB. Aalborg (130,000 inhabitants) is the biggest city in North Jutland. The port and university attract many visitors. Because of the lively city centre, with various shopping streets and lots of restaurants and pubs, the university city is known as 'the little Paris of the North'.

Swimming in Aalborg

For those who still have some energy or who want to chill out, take a dip in the Haraldslund swimming pool. The pool also features saunas and spa pools. You can swim outdoors at the Kridtgraven leisure park, 1.5 kilometres from the sports park.

Fårup Sommerland

Fårup Sommerland is located in the forest of North Jutland, between Blokhus and Løkken. This charming park, the largest amusement park in Denmark, combines nature and excitement with more than 60 attractions. From fast roller coasters and a large water park to play areas for the youngest visitors, there is always plenty to discover and enjoy.
