RESPECT

The heart of the Action

With the charming centre of Hasselt, the provincial capital of Belgian Limburg, and two top-tier sports parks, the Belgium Cup has everything in place for success. This combination works brilliantly: since it began in 2000, the Belgium Cup has always been packed to the rafters. Organisers Zonhoven United & KFC Helson provide tons of football in laid-back surroundings, just a few kilometres from the centre of Hasselt. Insiders know that the central area around the 'Grote Markt' (the Grand Square) has a lot of offer. Belgium Cup: welcoming and sociable.

Touristic information

Hasselt

A few kilometres from the tournament locations you will find the centuries-old centre of Hasselt. Why not get comfortable at one of the many pavement cafés on the market square? Shoppers will be delighted by the popular shopping streets, because you can find whatever you are looking for there. Fancy taking it up a notch? Try climbing the Beiaardtoren (bell tower). You'll not only be rewarded with a superb view, you can also see the huge bells up close. There really is something for everyone here.

Action Park Kiewit

Think you'll have any energy left after all those matches? If so, why not get in on the action at Action Park Kiewit? You and your team will have three hours to tackle four activities. You can choose from, among other things, a rope track, water trail, climbing wall and BMX slope. We're prepared to bet that you'll be tired after all that! There's also the municipal swimming pool for those who prefer to take it a bit easier. There are two large pools, a water slide and whirlpools; so, you can choose to go wild or just relax. And the best thing is: both are located within a very short distance of the sports fields!

Sportainment park Sparkx

Ready to spark some serious fun? Then head over to Sparkx – the ultimate sportainment park that combines sports and entertainment in one thrilling experience! With over 50 cutting-edge activities to choose from, you'll be spoiled for choice. Whether you're zipping around in electric go-karts, testing your aim in the archery range, or diving into a VR adventure, there's something for every adrenaline junkie. Not a fan of extreme action? No worries, Sparkx has chill zones and VR lounges where you can unwind and take it easy.
