A unique atmosphere

Ready for an exciting new football adventure in one of Germany's most dynamic cities? The Leipzig Pokal is the latest addition to Euro-Sporting's international tournament calendar – and definitely one to watch! You'll play your matches at the legendary grounds of 1. FC Lokomotive Leipzig, the club that reached the European Cup Winners' Cup final in 1987 against Ajax.

At the heart of the complex lies the iconic Bruno-Plache-Stadion, which hosts both tournament matches and the festive opening ceremony. With multiple high-quality pitches, excellent facilities, and a location just 15 minutes from Leipzig's vibrant city centre, this venue offers the full package: football history, international opponents, and a unique atmosphere.

Strutture sportive

This coming spring, the 1. FC Lokomotive Leipzig sports complex will be the vibrant stage for the Leipzig Pokal. Set in a location steeped in football history, the heart of the tournament is the Bruno-Plache-Stadion – usually home to the club's first team, now the arena where international youth teams will go head-to-head. Surrounding the stadium is a spacious and well-equipped complex with pristine pitches, modern changing facilities, and a welcoming atmosphere where sportsmanship and passion take center stage. The club's iconic blue and yellow colors and its dedicated volunteers create an environment where every team feels at home from the moment they arrive.

Informazioni turistiche

Leipzig

Leipzig (610,000 inhabitants) is a city full of life, where old stories and a fresh, sporty vibe come together perfectly. Of course, everyone knows Leipzig as the “City of Music,” home to icons like Bach and Mendelssohn. But today, it's also a real hotspot for young people and sports fans. You'll find green parks everywhere to chill, run, or cycle, and on almost every street corner there's a sports field, skate park, or another spot where action is the focus. The city center? It's buzzing. Think cool cafés, colorful markets, awesome street art, and shops full of style and creativity. Whether you're here to soak up culture, get active, or simply enjoy the laid-back atmosphere – Leipzig is a place where you'll feel right at home. A city for explorers, sports lovers, and anyone who thrives on energy and adventure.
