RESPECT

On the shores of Lake Geneva

Over the Whitsun weekend, the picturesque surroundings of Lake Geneva provide the perfect setting for the Léman Cup, an international youth football tournament in one of the most beautiful regions of France. A large part of the tournament is played at a sports complex located directly on the lakeshore, with the beach and water always within easy reach. Thanks to the experienced organisation of AS Thonon, teams can look forward to a professionally organised tournament weekend. The stunning views of the lake and the surrounding Alps, combined with exciting matches and encounters with teams from across Europe, create the perfect atmosphere for an unforgettable football experience. Experience international football in a unique location on the shores of Lake Geneva.

Touristic information

Thonon-les-Bains

Thonon-les-Bains (approx. 37,000 inhabitants) is a charming spa town on the southern shores of Lake Geneva, surrounded by the Alps. The town is known for its beautiful lakeside promenade, lively marina and historic old centre with cosy cafés and shops. From the harbour, visitors can take a boat trip across the lake to Switzerland or enjoy the beaches and crystal-clear water. Nature lovers will also appreciate the nearby mountains, which offer spectacular views and countless outdoor activities. During the Léman Cup, Thonon-les-Bains provides the perfect combination of international football, breathtaking scenery and a relaxing holiday atmosphere.
