RESPECT

International football on the French Flemish coast

Experience international youth football during the very first edition of the Trophée des Flandres, set in the characterful north of France. In Grande-Synthe, close to the historic city of Dunkirk, Olympique Grande-Synthe hosts this international youth football tournament where sport, hospitality and culture come together. Teams from different countries meet at a modern sports complex for a weekend of exciting matches and international encounters. After the games, there is plenty of time to discover the historic centre of Dunkirk or explore the vast dunes, wide sandy beaches and charming seaside resorts of the French Côte des Flandres. The combination of beautiful nature, rich culture and unique Flemish influences makes French Flanders a surprisingly attractive destination and provides the perfect setting for the Trophée des Flandres: an unforgettable blend of international football and a stay on the French Côte des Flandres.
